The Romance of Transportation Tokens

There is a fabulously interesting and inexpensive hobby that is closely allied with numismatics which I doubt if many coin collectors know exist. This is the collecting of Transportation Tokens (tokens good for one ride, fare, etc.). While this includes present day bus tokens - the more romantic and historical phases of the hobby are brought forth in the collecting of old omnibus, horsecar, bridge, ferry, and street car tokens and the digging up of the interesting stories behind the tokens.

There are over 5000 fare tokens of all kinds and varieties known to the present day collectors. These tokens give a vivid picture of the history and development of public transportation in the United States over the past 120 years. The first fare tokens were issued by the Roxbury and Maverick Coach Omnibus Lines of Boston, Mass. These tokens are now valued from $3.50 to $5.00 by token collectors.

Just as the coin collector has catalogs that help him evaluate and classify his coins - so does the collector of transportation tokens. The Atwood Check List of American Transportation Tokens lists in alphabetical order state by state broken down to city by city listings of all known tokens and gives valuations. Louisville, Ky. is the number one city with the most issues with seventy-five tokens. Pennsylvania leads with the most cities that have used fare tokens at one time or another with an even 100 cities and towns listed.

There are nearly 200 collectors of transportation tokens in the United States. There is a national organization which most of them belong to - the American Vecturist Association. Besides being responsible for the publication of the token catalog, this organization holds annual conventions (this year at Minneapolis, Minn. Aug. 4 - 5) and issues a monthly newsletter The Fare Box which keeps collectors posted on new issued tokens as well as other information pertaining to the hobby including histories or stories behind the various tokens.

BERGEN COUNTY COIN CLUB CELEBRATING THEIR SECOND ANNIVERSARY

Fifty members were on hand to help polish off a square yard of cream cake. This club has become one of the most active and publicized in New Jersey, and a real credit to the hobby.

Prominent members and guests were, left to right; Tony Mayer, Vice President of the club; Raymond Gallo, former President of the Bronx Club; Bill Dewey, former librarian of A.N.A.; William Anton, President of the Bergen County Club; Martin Kortjohn, Secretary Bronx Club, former President of N. Y. Coin Club Mr. Debellis, President of Bronx Coin Club. A cordial invitation is extended to all coin enthusiasts to attend any of the meetings.

(Note) The 1956-P nickels continue to have a low mintage, an excellent buy if it continues at its present rate.

NEWS ITEM

Early Silver Dollar Collectors will be interested to learn that M. H. Bollender who published his splendid book in 1950 on all the many varieties of U S Silver Dollars known to him. And then in his superb collection which he sold that year at Auction, has just copyrighted a new list of values in Good, Fine, Very Fine, Ex. Fine and Unc. conditions on each of the different varieties, 1794 to 1803. It is surprising and interesting to learn of the number of rareities in the different varieties of each of these dates. Many different dies were used and broken in the striking of these coins.

R. C. LEES
Brookhaven, Miss.

For information concerning the catalog - the Atwood Checklist - or the monthly newsletter The Fare Box, write Reverend John M. Coffee, Jr., P. O. Box 1204, Boston 4, Mass.

Because of the nature of the hobby - no one collector owns a complete collection of all the known tokens - certain issues the known quantity available is quite small. Needless to say, these are the most valuable. Probably the best way to start a collection is to visit the offices of your local transit company and ask to see their "foreign" tokens. In this modern age where many people travel extensively - they will often deposit a home town token in the fare box of a transit company of another city. Many transit companies have hundreds of these "white elephant" tokens which they have accumulated for years. They often can be obtained for very little cost.

Probably the second greatest source of tokens, especially the older ones, is by trading or direct purchase from a fellow collector. A complete roster of collectors is published annually by the American Vecturist Association in its monthly newsletter The Fare Box. Occasionally a "rare" oldie has been known to turn up in a coin dealers "junk box" - his accumulation of tokens and minor foreign coins. Then there are the many odd and unusual circumstances too numerous to mention in which many a collector has uncovered a choice rare item.

Your author, being stationed with the Air Force way up in cold Alaska, has nearly 4000 different tokens in his collection. There are not many transit companies up here but there are still a few tokens. I am always interested in buying, selling and trading fare tokens with interested parties and will be glad to answer any questions I can about token collecting.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

NOTE

Pages 4-5 display of Mr. Loser of Pa. honored us with our first two-page spread. Mr. Loser is a well known coin dealer specializing in Silver Dollars among many other type coins.

LETTERS OF COMMENT

Because of the confidence I have in the success of your Coin Journal, I am investing in a 3 year renewal subscription.

Charles McLemore
Decatur, Alabama

EDITOR'S NOTE

Thank you Charles. I am pleased to report I have been receiving many renewals of which approximately 50% are 2 and 3 years. This is very gratifying.

One of our early subscribers, Flying Eaglet #12, Max Hirschhorn, prominent dealer of Uncirculated Rolls from Long Island, New York, honored us with the first 3 year renewal in May.

OUR POLL OF SUBSCRIPTION

Looking through our subscription files to get an idea of what states list the bulk of the readers of the Flying Eaglet and after a few hours of jotting, checking and marking along the side of each state on our master state listing, here is what we found. First, our good old home state, New Jersey; New York; Pennsylvania; California; Ohio; Michigan; Illinois; Indiana; Connecticut; Virginia; Iowa; Wisconsin; Massachusetts. In the 14 months of publishing the Flying Eaglet 52,000 copies have been mailed to every state in the Union to our readers.

—oOo—

What goes with the 1955-P Nickels? Already they are $8.00 per roll and expected to hit $15.00 by next year. A word of caution, 8,000,000 is a lot of nickels.

—oOo—

A PEEK AT THE FUTURE

1955-P nickels $8.00 per roll, next year?

1955-P dimes $7.50 per roll. Price looks like a good investment.

1956-P nickels $2.85 per roll next year?

—oOo—

ARE THE SILVER DOLLARS A GOOD INVESTMENT? WATCH THE 1955-P DIMES CLIMB!

Silver Dollars CC mints minted in only hundreds of thousands should start climbing in price soon. A good speculation at the present price. Source of supply should be just about exhausted, question remains how long it will take to be absorbed by collectors, dealers and speculators. A speculation of about $10,000 should make them rare again and flip the price up again.

The $1.00 and $3.00 Gold are in demand, an interest in Commemoratives should soon be in the making.

1956-P nickels is favorably following the 1955-P nickels path. In fact, if it keeps up its present low monthly mint rate the mintage will be about 3½ million lower than the 1955-P. It is best to buy your 56-P nickels now at $2.60 a roll then at the end of the year.

FORTUNE HUNTER

The second largest American diamond ever reported has turned up in ..... (can't let this info. go on account of stampede). So and So, found the diamond while searching the (area can't be mentioned) near M. A. (for obvious reasons). So and So, has placed a $15,000.00 value on the 15.314 carat stone and has turned it over to ..... diamond expert to determine its quality and for appraisal.

So and So's good fortune has stimulated interest in the area. "Buried Treasure found - by you."

Dear Sir:

I received my sample copy of The Flying Eaglet and I think it is the best. Enclosed you will find $2.00 for the next 12 months of your fine paper.

I have something that might be of encouragement to the coin collectors. I always look through my pocket change and just the other day I found a 1916-D Mercury Dime that I would grade very good.

CONVENTION

The South Dakota Coin and Stamp Club held its 5th annual convention in the General Custer
Hotel, at Custer May 12 and 13, 1956.

The present officers were re-elected for another year and include President, Mr. Leo McDermott of Huron, Vice President
Mr. Leo Heibel of Leola, Secretary & Treasurer Mr. J. L. Ellis, 513½ S. Main, Aberdeen.

The hospitality, entertainment and courtesy extended us were of the finest, however old man weather must have had it in for us
as it rained, hailed, snowed or sleeted both days. This probably caused a somewhat smaller attendance as only twenty-seven were present at the banquet.

Mr. Beebe from Omaha, Neb.
was in to visit us, also Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Richardson of Klamath Falls, Oregon and Mr. and Mrs.
L. A. Bell of Post Falls, Idaho,
last but not least our auctioneer
Mr. Willis Gilbert from Wheat Ridge, Colo.

Now about the exhibits - ? ?
You just should have been there
to see them.

The convention city for next year has been chosen but no date has been set at this time. Plans are being forward earlier for an even more successful affair next year.

JUST ONE MAN'S OPINION

All comments of any particular coin that are mentioned in this Ad are just the opinion of the advertiser and my knowledge of coins is no greater than what all collectors and dealers have been able to learn throughout the years that have passed.

MONTHLY TIPS

The 1938-D Buffalo Nickel, in my opinion, is worth $20.00 per roll. Watch it.
The 1885-CC Silver Dollar should be selling for three times its present market price.
The 1954-P Cent has not left the post as yet but give it a month or so. (Check the low amount minted)

WE HAVE A FEW BU ROLLS OF

1954-P cents	$1.75	Limit	10 rolls to an order.
1954-P cents	1.25	Limit	10 rolls strictly BU, but not as nice.
1955-P nickels	9.00	Limit	(5) rolls to an order.

THE SILVER DOLLAR

Has been the most widely neglected coin among collectors for 150 years, that is up until two years ago. Since then it has been very very much in demand and increasing in popularity by leaps and bounds and also in prices. Even Old Timers are starting to raise their eyebrows and are shopping for the best offers in this most beautiful of all U. S. coins.

Why not start your collection now with 25 all different, including all mints, along with album for $35.00; cond. VG to Unc. If you prefer all BU, the price is $55.00.

"The Missing Sun Porch"

In regards to our February issue of the article "The Missing Sun Porch of Monticello." Mr. L. M. Van Gemeot, Sec'y. of the Puget Sound Numismatic Society of Bremerton, Washington reports finding (1) after checking through (100) 1939 S Jefferson nickels.

Mr. R. Magnuson, a lawyer and collector from Wallace, Idaho was the first to discover this and brought this to the journals attention. He discovered (4) while checking some 600 pieces of 1939 S mint. How many have you found?
